Classic Architecture and Art

Featured Speaker: David Schwartz

Key Point: All ideas are in some part from history since the present could not exist without the past.

“Promoting classic architecture and art promotes the future of design.”

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Action Vector website. The background is a close-up of water droplets on a metallic surface. A large grid of letters forms the word 'ACTION'. The letters 'A', 'C', and 'T' are in the top row, and 'I', 'O', and 'N' are in the bottom row. The letter 'V' is partially visible between 'C' and 'T'. The letter 'I' is in a blue box with the text 'WORLD'S FASTEST DATABASE'. The letter 'O' is in a green box with the text 'TAKE ACTION ON BIG DATA'. The letter 'N' is in a blue box with the text 'GLOBAL, MISSION CRITICAL'. Below the grid, there is a dark red banner with the text 'Shaping Information Management' and 'Action Named Company to Watch'. A hand is holding a tablet displaying 'information management' and '40 Vendors We're Watching in 2012'. To the right, there is a list of links: 'Action Vectorwise Real-time Hadoop Analysis', 'Shaping Information Management', and 'Dozens of Internet & Social Media Companies'. The top navigation bar includes the Action Vector logo, 'Login | Register', social media icons, and a search bar.
